in the Spirit of Christ*

“We covenant one with another to seek and respond to the Word and the will of God. We agree to walk together in the ways of the Lord, made known and to be made known to us. We hold it to be the mission of the Church to witness to the Gospel of Jesus Christ in all the world, while worshipping God, and striving for truth, justice, and peace. As in the past, we depend on the Holy Spirit to lead and empower us. We pray for the coming of the kingdom of God, and we look with faith toward the triumph of righteousness and eternal life.”

Jamaica Mission Trip Update

The Jamaica Team was commissioned by the congregation on Sunday June 18th to represent FCCEJ as we travel to build a garden for the White Horses Infant and Primary School in St. Thomas, Jamaica. On July 11th, they met at the Burlington Airport at 4:30 am to begin their adventure. An 8-hour layover in Atlanta provided lots of time for plans and bonding! After a long bumpy ride on rough roads, they arrived at Golden Shores hotel around 10:30 pm. The next morning, they visited the project site, gathered supplies, and met with the local members of the project team.

There are pictures and posts on the church Facebook page. If you would like to see it and are not on Facebook, come visit Jen in the office and she can show you. Internet can be inconsistent in that area, we'll get word to the church if we lose service.

The team is very excited about this trip and working with the White Horses school community. We are also happy to be bringing the school and medical supplies you donated. They will be much appreciated. The team and our project partners in Jamaica are so very grateful for the support of our FCCEJ congregation in this project!!

Without you, it would not be possible!

Sixth Sunday after Pentecost

Genesis 25:19-34

A House Divided

The twin sons of Isaac and Rebekah, Esau and Jacob would always have trouble. They were born that way, born to be divided, born to scrap and fight, and constantly wrestling.

Esau, born first, was an outdoorsman, a hunter. Jacob preferred to stay in the tents. It would be the quieter one, the homebody, Jacob, who would end up stealing Esau's birthright as the first-born. As their story progresses a natural rivalry between them will turn toward animosity, much as our nation's political milieu has become in recent years.

It may be that there have been other eras when political discourse and everyday interactions were punctuated by the sounds of relationships fracturing and a people seriously divided against each other, but it does feel like this time is unlike any other. Sometimes, everything seems charged with an electricity of division. We are divided not only by opinion but as always by race and national origin and all the other categories that lay claim.

Rev. Nayiri Karjian is a UCC Interim Transitional Minister who has served UCC churches from Connecticut to Missouri to Tennessee and Colorado. She was born in Syria to Armenian parents who had fled from Turkey. She grew up in Aleppo and went to school in Lebanon. She has woken up to the sound of gunfire, and she has heard bombs more than once in her life. In 1982, she fled to the United States with a few clothes, $300, and a student visa.

Since 1985, Nayiri has shared her story with many congregations.. She tells about her experiences growing up in Syria. She talks about going to school with both Muslims and Christians, and how important it is to hear each other's stories. Story-sharing, she will tell you, is an invitation to friendship and compassion, and a way to discover our shared humanity. It may not be inevitable that we were born to face others over a wall of differences. Sharing our lives means telling our stories in order to find our connections and not just our divisions.
