A Welcoming Community, Accepting and Serving All in the Spirit of Christ

“We covenant one with another to seek and respond to the Word and the will of God. We agree to walk together in the ways of the Lord, made known and to be made known to us. We hold it to be the mission of the Church to witness to the Gospel of Jesus Christ in all the world, while worshipping God, and striving for truth, justice, and peace. As in the past, we depend on the Holy Spirit to lead and empower us. We pray for the coming of the kingdom of God, and we look with faith toward the triumph of righteousness and eternal life.”

Call to Worship

Leader: Welcome to this sacred space, a place where people have gathered for 150 years to pray to God, discern the movement of the divine in our world and to work together to create a healthy, kind and peaceful society.

Pulpit Side: We join those who have gone before and seek peace.

Lectern Side: We join those who come after and work for peace.

All: God wants peace for all of us in all times and in all places.

Leader: We come to this sacred space to pray to God, discern the movement of the divine in our world and to work together to create a healthy, kind and peaceful society in the future. Come, let us worship our God.

A Time of Confession

Call to Confession

Leader: From the fallen Adam and Eve to the murmuring Israelites, from the disciples to the saints of God, from the beginning of time until now, everyone falls short of the glory of God, all people fail to live up to the full potential of their being, all sin before God.

People: We are not as good as we could be, both as individuals but also as a faith community. Come, let us confess our shortcomings before God and each other.

Unison Prayer of Confession

Wonderful God of Forgiveness, thank you for staying with humanity through our murmurings, wonderings, tempestuous fits, moody silences and outright rebellions. Thank you for being the light in our darkness. We lay our many shortcomings before your throne of mercy and seek your forgiveness for not living up to our potential. We seek your warmth in the midst of the world's coldness. Allow our faith to create healthier lives. Teach us to love ourselves, our neighbors and You. We pray this in Christ's name, amen

The Assurance of Pardon

Leader: Like a parent, God always loves us and welcomes us home. Come, soak in the power and presence of the very Spirit of God and know that you are forgiven. Come, let us welcome God's grace by singing.

Spirit of the Living God # 283

Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on me;

Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on me.

Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me.

Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on me.

Children's Message

“The President”

After the Children's Message, preschool and kindergarteners are invited to follow Laurie out for a time of Faith Formation on the 2nd floor with our Spiritual Friends and all will return for Communion. Kathryn & Manu are in the nursery. There is audio in there and the service is streamed to Fellowship Hall. Adults are welcome to accompany the kids, help them get settled and stay or return to worship.

God has made us all a rainbow.

Colors dancing 'round and 'round.

In our hair and skin and eyes, big and little, every size,

God has made us all a rainbow dancing 'round.

Jesus loves the little children,
All God's children of the world.
Whether young or old or new, Jesus loves us through and through Teaching us to love all creatures in the world.

Pastoral Prayer and Unison Lord's Prayer ("trespasses")

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever, amen.

Prayer Requests Offered within the Community

A Time of Silence for Personal Prayer

Musical Response Rise Up Day

I'll rise up, I'll rise like the day

I'll rise up, I'll rise unafraid

I'll rise up, And I'll do it a thousand times again.

And I'll rise up, High like the waves

I'll rise up, In spite of the ache

I'll rise up, And I'll do it a thousands times again.

And I'll rise up, I'll rise up, I'll rise up.

I'll rise.

Invitation

Leader: We are blessed with Vermont's natural beauty, good food, warm accommodations, friends and family and a place to worship freely. We have been given blessings in abundance. Come, let us show our gratitude.

People: We welcome the opportunity to share our belongings so that Christ's work of love and justice might continue. I am thrilled to be a part of God's community of peace here at First Church. Come, receive my gift.

Leader: Will the ushers please come forward.

The Doxology # 778

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise God, all creatures here below;

Praise God for all that love has done;

Creator, Christ, and Spirit, One.

Prayer of Dedication

Leader: Let us pray. Creator and Creating God, thank you for the gifts you have so freely given to all of us. Use this offering, our church and all of us to spread a word of hope, peace, joy and love. In Christ's name, amen.

Go Now In Peace

Go now in peace. Never be afraid.

God will go with you each hour of every day.

Go now in faith, steadfast, strong and true.

Know God will guide you in all you do.

Go now in love, and show you believe.

Reach out to others so all the world can see.

God will be there, watching from above.

Go now in peace, in faith and in love

M O M E N T S
UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

November 5, 2017
Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time
Partners in Service
Matthew 23: 1-12

“The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others.”

Mahatma Gandhi

There is nothing clearer about the Gospel of Jesus Christ than that it calls us to service. We all weigh our service to our families and our own well-being against the call of a world full of need. Work and church and community all vie for a place on our calendar. However, after years of working, you might find yourself moving into a part-time job or retiring. Or, you might be a recent college graduate with a summer to volunteer. Do you ever think that volunteering away from home in an unfamiliar setting could also be a kind of adventure? Do you have time in your life to have an adventure and be of service to others?

Partners in Service is a program of the United Church of Christ that offers opportunities for volunteer placement around the country. The placements can be as short as a summer and as long as twelve months. You could be rehabbing houses in Fresno, California, supporting humane borders in Tucson, Arizona, or working with LGBTQ youth in Atlanta, Georgia. How about volunteering at Heifer International Farm? Working with addicts and health services? Want an international volunteer placement? If you are an adult of any age, and have the time, you can have an adventure in service. Go to ucc.org and search for the application to Partners in Service.

Betzi Yungclas is a member of the First Community United Church of Christ, Dallas, Texas, and a serial volunteer for Partners in Service. She saw a brochure for Partners at a Conference-wide meeting and knew that it was something she could do. She had spent thirty years working for AT&T where she was the first woman in the country to climb telephone poles. Now, volunteering is her work. She has been placed in a variety of disaster relief settings from Katrina to her more recent work helping the recovery effort after Hurricane Matthew. She has also spent a long-term opportunity working with Humane Borders in Arizona.

One of Betzi's co-volunteers is Jon Wallace, a member of Park Hill Congregational United Church of Christ, Denver, Colorado. Of his experience Jon says, “Bringing communities together, teaching, and companioning them towards recovery and resilience, brings joy and gratefulness as I see God at work through the hands of the church and others.”

What about you, or someone you know? Is there time on your hands? Do you wonder what it would be like to work for peace with others of a like mind, to help embody justice, to create hope in hopeless situations, advocate for clean and affordable housing, build new homes after a disaster? Betzi says that picking up that brochure long ago changed her life. Do you want a change in your life? Remember Jesus said, “The greatest among you will be your servant.” Is there service in your future?
