Order of Worship

Prelude

An Extravagant Welcome

*No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey,
you are welcome in this place.*

Welcome Greeting and Announcements

Our Ministers will welcome everyone to church and then highlight some events in our shared life, then the Deacon on Duty will welcome everyone and invite people to raise significant celebrations to the congregation or introduce yourself or a friend as a guest. We encourage everyone to sign the Friendship Book.

Introit

Blest Are They [refrain]

Call to Worship

Leader: Like any institution, the church can grow stale with human corruption, apathy and the eternal quest for position, power and treasure.

People: Then the Spirit of God blows in and sweeps away the cobwebs from the myopic eyes of the minions and causes divine grace and truth to surface and lead once again.

Leader: It is an ageless cycle of God's inspiration and leadership and humanity's slow decline to baser instincts; then human insight, growth and response to God's continuing presence.

People: Slowly, our understanding of God increases and we take the logs out of our eyes to grow in our spiritual maturity: both as individuals and as a family of faith.

Leader: Today, let us remember one such day in 1517 when Martin Luther and others opened their eyes to see God's truth and light leading the way into a future where the Word and the Church were opened to invigorating ideas.

Prayer of Invocation [composed and led by the Deacon on Duty]

Children's Message

During both services, Jennifer, our staff person, is in the Nursery where there is a speaker to hear the service and it is streamed into Fellowship Hall. After the Children's Message second service, Preschool - 8th grade will follow Laurie for Faith Formation, music & peer groups. High School youth are welcome to join as peer helpers. When peer groups end at 11:30am, children in Preschool - 2nd grade will need to be signed out by an authorized person.

God has made us all a rainbow.

Colors dancing 'round and 'round.

In our hair and skin and eyes, big and little, every size,

God has made us all a rainbow dancing 'round.

Jesus loves the little children,

All God's children of the world.

Whether young or old or new, Jesus loves us through and through Teaching us to love all creatures in the world.

Pastoral Prayer and Unison Lord's Prayer

A Time of Silence for Personal Prayer

Sharing Our Prayers with God and Each Other

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever, amen.

Musical Response

Open Our Eyes

Manibusan

Open our eyes, Lord; We want to see Jesus

To reach out and touch him; And say that we love him

Open our ears, Lord; And help us to listen

Wednesday Night Searchers

In October, we are reading Moral Man and Immoral Society: A Study in Ethics and Politics by Reinhold Niebuhr. Niebuhr writes cogently on the morality of individuals and the moral ethics of society or the lack thereof. He illuminates why moral individuals are unable to think outside of their own self-interest, and how that impacts society at large, and how to address this for the betterment of all. We'll have a healthy conversation on ethics, politics, religion, morality, and more. The book is available online via e-books or pdf and there are a few print copies around to borrow. Join us at any point in the month.

Coffee Clatter Fridays 8am

Pastors Mark & Josh are still meeting people for discussion and breakfast on Fridays @ Martone's. Join them for fellowship & great discussion!

M O M E N T S
UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

October 28, 2018

Twenty-third Sunday after Pentecost

Mark 10:46-52

Take Heart

Bartimaeus must have gotten asked quite often if there was anything anybody could bring him, or help him across the street, or in some way aid him but only once did the Lord of Life ask him what he wanted. Only once did someone who could change things ask him what he wanted.

What would you say – if asked what do you want by someone who could give it to you? A person struggling to pay for their education, especially theological education, would know what to ask for. The average Seminarian debt these days hovers between 30 and 40,000 dollars. That's a lot of debt to incur preparing for a career that doesn't have a high salary return. The United Church of Christ has many scholarship funds for Theological students. There are funds for people going into military chaplaincy, funds for disabled students, funds for LGBTQ students, Latino and Latina students, African American students and more. If you know somebody planning to go into ministry who is a member in discernment in the UCC let them know that there is help by going to ucc.org and searching for scholarships.

Many Conferences in the UCC have all manner of scholarships. And congregations, too, have set up a variety of scholarships. In Cloverdale, California they have a scholarship for a graduate of the local High School who is the first in their family to go to college. Heidelberg University in Ohio has a scholarship for members of UCC congregations. Chapman University in Orange, California is another school with scholarships for UCC students. Cable Congregational UCC in Cable, Wisconsin has a small scholarship in the name of a former pastor.

The average monthly student loan payment (for borrower aged 20 to 30 years): $411 [based on average debt at 39,000 dollars (WSJ: Test Your Smarts on Student Debt, March 4, 2018)]. That is a huge amount of debt to follow a recent graduate. Wouldn't it be great to help lessen that burden—to be someone who gives what a person wants? Think about how much Higher Education means to a young person and what kind of a difference even a small scholarship could make. Many churches and conferences have set up funds. Your church probably has a memorial fund for your congregation's future. What about building a different kind of security for the people in your church? What about a scholarship fund for the children of members of your congregation?
