Third Day

Call to Worship

Leader: God calls ordinary people to extraordinary live—lives lived with intention, with purpose, with a desire to be great. Jesus says: to be great, we need to serve. Through the miracles and teachings of Jesus, he calls us to be disciples, to advocate for peace, to heal our wounds and the wounds of those who are hurting, to build the kingdom of God here while we wait for the kingdom of God to come.

Lectern side: We are here today to remember the life of Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King Jr who was the most recognizable leader of Civil Rights movement for African Americans.

Pulpit side: We are also here today to remember that extraordinary public leaders depend on other ordinary but extraordinary faithful people like organizers and activist. Today we also honor them, especially Ella Baker and Bayard Rustin.

Leader: The Creator calls us, the Word teaches us, and the Spirit leads us. Let us worship God together.

Prayer of Invocation [composed and led by the Deacon on Duty]

Children's Message

During worship our staff person, Jennifer, is in the Nursery for children under 3 years. There is audio in there and the service is streamed to Fellowship Hall. Second Service after the Children's Message, children in preschool up through Senior High are welcome to join us for our Hands-On Mission Project. Adults are welcome to accompany the kids, help them get settled and stay or return to worship. All will return to worship during the final hymn.

God has made us all a rainbow.
Colors dancing 'round and 'round.
In our hair and skin and eyes, big and little, every size,
God has made us all a rainbow dancing 'round.
Jesus loves the little children,
All God's children of the world.
Whether young or old or new, Jesus loves us through and through Teaching us to love all creatures in the world.

The heart of our congregational tradition is meeting once a year for our Annual Meeting. Those gathered at the meeting on January 27th at 11:30am become the governing body of our church. What they vote upon stands as policy with neither a committee nor staff member being able to rescind or disregard their vote. To ensure that everyone has the opportunity to get to the meeting, we will only have ONE SERVICE on January 27th @ 10:00am and in light of our congregational ways and tradition, Mark & Josh will answer any questions the congregation has during the sermon time.

Admission is free, although there will be a good will offering at the door.

Many if not all of us have been touched by the loss of someone we hold near and dear. Sharon Dettenrieder has led Bereavement Support Groups for decades and will be working with our ordained staff to create a support group where people can share their grief journey and draw support from others who are travelling down the same road. Meetings in Marvin Lounge, 7-8:30 p.m. Everyone, church & community members are welcome, bring a friend!
