Prelude

An Extravagant Welcome

*No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey,
you are welcome in this place.*

Welcome Greeting and Announcements

Our Ministers will welcome everyone to church and then highlight some events in our shared life, then the Deacon on Duty will welcome everyone and invite people to raise significant celebrations to the congregation or introduce yourself or a friend as a guest. We encourage everyone to sign the Friendship Book.

Passing the Peace

Passing the Peace of Christ is an ancient ritual of the church grounded in Christ's resurrection appearance to the disciples in the upper room when he breathed upon them and offered them peace. After the minister passes the peace of Christ, then everyone is encouraged to greet the people around you with Christ's peace. During this winter season where many have been sick, feel free to put your hands together in prayer and offer peace to your neighbor without shaking their hands. This will keep us all healthy and better able to come to church! We begin this ancient ritual with the following words....

Pastor: The Peace of Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

Hosanna (Praise is Rising)

Call to Worship

Leader: Friends, gather around, prepare for Jesus' parade into Jerusalem. His triumphant parade excites his disciples to sing praises of joy and celebration. They are ready to enter Jerusalem with him.

People: Let us join our hearts with the early disciples, ready to sing praises of joy and celebration.

Leader: Let us worship God. Let the parade begin.

(At the start of the hymn, children, youth, & young at heart are welcome to parade around the sanctuary, by moving to the back of the sanctuary)

Prayer of Invocation and Unison Lord's Prayer (“trespasses”)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever, amen.

Children's Message

During worship our staff person, Jennifer, is in the Nursery for children under 3 years. There is audio in there and the service is streamed to Fellowship Hall. After the Children's Message second service, Preschool - eighth grade are welcome to follow Laurie for Faith Formation with music & peer group on the 2nd & 3rd floors. High School youth are welcome to join in as peer helpers. Adults can accompany children, get them settled, stay or return to worship. When peer groups end at 11:30am, children in Preschool - 2nd grade will need to be signed out by an authorized person.

God has made us all a rainbow.

Colors dancing 'round and 'round.

In our hair and skin and eyes, big and little, every size,

God has made us all a rainbow dancing 'round.

Jesus loves the little children,

All God's children of the world.

Whether young or old or new, Jesus loves us through and through Teaching us to love all creatures in the world.

AnthemOne Day*Matisyahu*Pastoral Prayer

Each week during Lent, we will begin our time of prayer by having each pew [or if along in a pew, then pairing with the pew next to you] in focused dialogue about particular types of prayer. This will just take a small fraction of time and in the process, we will learn some of the various ways Christians have prayed through the centuries.

Today's prayer of focus is Suffering Prayer.

The Prayer of Suffering is not centered only on our own needs but also centers on others. In Suffering Prayer, we offer to God the various difficulties of our lives, the trials that we face and ask God to use them in a redemptive way. Suffering Prayer also encourages us to voluntarily take on the grief and sorrows of others in order to set them free. Suffering Prayer also encourages one to see how our own suffering has led to truth, meaning, growth and grace. One core of this type of prayer is not that God sends the suffering, but that God is suffering with us, crying at the injustice, weeping for those afflicted with disease and advocating for those suffering at the hands of despots and villains.

Speak to your neighbor about one way you have been able to use the suffering or difficulties in your life for the good, and then quietly hold hands and pray for the other person's prayer of suffering.

Let There Be Peace on Earth

Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me.
Let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be!
With God our Creator, family all are we,
Let us walk with each other in perfect harmony.
Let peace begin with me. Let this be the moment now.
With ev'ry breath I take, let this be my solemn vow;
To take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally!
Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me.

What better way of starting the day than by worshipping our Creator and centering yourself on the Spirit of the Living God. Come and start your morning at church and see how it transforms your entire day.

Wednesday Night Searchers

Each week we get together to explore the faith. We do so through books, movies, discussions with members from other religious traditions & TED Talks. We are currently reading, Love Your Enemies: How Decent People Can Save America from the Culture of Contempt by Arthur C. Brooks. This offers a clear strategy on how to engage with those who you disagree. And most of all, it is a roadmap to arrive at the happiness that comes when we choose to love one another, despite our differences. Books are available in the office or from Josh/Mark.

Coffee Clatter Fridays 8am

This may seem like a foolish question, but if you like to talk and drink coffee, then come down to Martone's every Friday morning from 8-9 for an open conversation. Rev. Mark and/or Josh are there every week and we talk about everything from camping to politics, from deep theological questions to silly jokes, from village life to great vacation spots, from business deals to the best restaurants in town. We laugh, get serious and support each other. Everyone is invited!

Sixth Sunday of Lent (Palm/Passion Sunday)

Luke 19:28-40

Into Jerusalem

Palm Sunday is a Sunday of possibility and expectancy. There's a colt and cloaks on the road, people shouting and a lot of excitement. Jesus is coming! There's a party atmosphere with neighbors that don't like the noise and tell Jesus to keep his followers quiet. But Jesus replies, "Even if everyone was quiet the stones would shout." Can you imagine feeling so much hope and joy at the entrance into your city or town of someone who represents not a political, military or sports victory, but the coming of peace itself?

The day after Jesus arrived in Jerusalem, he went to the temple and turned over the tables of people who were buying and selling and changing money. He drove them out saying, "my house shall be a house of prayer; but you have made it a den of robbers" (Luke 19:46). The economic injustice of the money-changers' profiteering in the temple infuriates Jesus and this is one of the few times we witness his righteous anger.

At that time, following Jesus meant making choices about whose side you were on. Christians still make those kinds of choices. But we followers of Jesus have not done such an excellent job of understanding his message of compassion and love. Instead, for two thousand years, we've often been part of the same kind of brutal power systems as the one in Jerusalem long ago. And all of this time, the God of compassion and love must have wept.

This week, as we stumble toward Jerusalem, we can rely on God's grace to carry us every step of the way and trust the unknown future to the God who works good in every circumstance and in every holy week of our lives.

Work this week for peace and economic justice. Here are some ideas:

Start a prayer and meditation group in your church with a focus on peace.

Find ways to use your voice in solidarity with others who may not always be heard.

If there are ways in which you are serving the master of money in your life, free yourself!

Put love into action: right some wrongs with an organization seeking economic justice.
