Call to Worship

Leader: The beauty of creation inundates us with the scents of spring and colors bursting forth everywhere, with rainbows and waves crashing on the beach.

People: For freshly tilled earth to butterflies, from songbirds to the sounds of neighborhoods awakening from the winter, from the warmth of the sun to the coolness of our lakes....God blesses us each day.

Leader: Come, let us celebrate the power of Christ's resurrection with small acts of kindness, hope within the darkness, friendship that endures and love that never ends.

People: For the memory of loved ones that live on, not only in our hearts but in God's kingdom, for the arc of justice that keeps challenging and for new life and insight in all fields of knowledge....Jesus lives on.

Leader: Thank you God for embedding newness of life into every fiber of creation, every heart that beats and every avenue of inquiry. Come, let us enter into God's stream of consciousness as we deepen our understanding of life.

God has made us all a rainbow.
Colors dancing 'round and 'round.
In our hair and skin and eyes, big and little, every size,
God has made us all a rainbow dancing 'round.
Jesus loves the little children,
All God's children of the world.
Whether young or old or new, Jesus loves us through and through
Teaching us to love all creatures in the world.

Sharing Our Prayers with God and Each Other

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever, amen.

May 19th ~ Guest Preacher Rev. Ron Faux

Rev. Ron and Joan Faux has blessed First Church with their presence. Joan joined the church during the last new member's class and Ron, stood with her, unable to join due to denominational constraints. However, he loves it here and has already become an active member and friend. On May 19th, Rev. Mark will be at a UCC Conference and

Rev. Josh will not quite be recovered yet from surgery, so Rev. Ron has gratefully agreed to preach and lead worship. Ron served churches in Hawaii, California and New Mexico and brings a wealth of experience to the church and on May 19th, the pulpit. Be sure to come and hear an experienced ordained minister from the United Methodist Church deliver the week's message. He will be preaching at both services.

May 24th ~ Memorial Day Evening Service, 7pm

The Memorial Day Remembrances will begin at First Congo with a worship service where we will remember those who have given their lives to protect our country and way of life, pray and introduce the Grand Marshals to the community. Rev. Mark will work with the parade committee to shape the service and set the tone of the week-end remembrances in town. The Service will start at 7 p.m. and then proceed to the five corners around 8 p.m. for the candlelight ceremony. Everyone is welcome.

June 1st ~ Saturday Special Service, 4:30pm

On the first Saturday of each month, we have an alternative worship service. Fellowship Hall is transformed into worship space, communion is observed as a way to commune with God and each other at the same time and each element of the service is interactive. We have been getting between 20-30 people and all of us enjoy the difference. Come experience this new and different approach to worship and bring a friend. It starts at 4:30 and ends easily by 5:30, although many hang around and talk to each other.

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

May 12, 2019

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Acts 9:36-43

Mother's Day

Life-giving Acts

Today's scripture tells about raising Tabitha (or Dorcas) from the dead. She was a seamstress for the widows of Joppa and has become a symbol for lay women who have worked in the church for centuries. Churches also can be brought back to life, raised from ruin. This has been the experience of Rev. Jennifer Brownell who is pastor of the Vancouver (Wash.) United Church of Christ that was severely damaged by fire in May 2016, displacing its congregation.

Adopting the mantra "you can burn us down, but you can't burn us out," Rev. Brownell kept the flame of faith alive as the congregation grew in its commitment and numbers even as its home was being rebuilt. This accomplishment was celebrated in a dedication ceremony in September 2018.

For Rev. Brownell, the experience, including the open house celebration, has reinforced the power of community. "We have been focused for a long time on our internal needs — we had to be, because the rebuild was so complicated and absorbing," she said. "The rededication was packed with neighbors and friends who had supported us, and it reminded me again how important it is to continue to forge connections across the lines that we think separate us."

"We live in challenging times for our community, and for our nation," Brownell added. "As we move forward, it is our prayer that we are able to take what we have learned about the power of community and the hope of resurrection out into the world, to be a force for justice and healing."

I thought, the only good thing about sorrow is that it brings us down to ground zero inside ourselves, it reacquaints us with our best and truest self, and it releases compassion like some mighty hormone and if there is one thing that is good for us it's to have compassion, because it brings us together. -Elizabeth Berg, American novelist
