Call to Worship

Leader: We've come from every direction to worship God. Our worship restores our souls, renews our hopes, revives our hearts, and repairs our minds for the week ahead.

People: Bless us God. Bless us!

Leader: If we were weary coming into worship, let us be weary no more. Let God's love lift our moods. If we were happy coming into worship, let our happiness increase. Let God's love sustain that happiness.

People: Bless us God. Bless us!

Leader: Let us worship God. Let our souls be restored. Let our minds find peace. Let our hearts be filled with love.

Prayer of Invocation [composed and led by the Deacon on Duty]

Children's Message

Our Nursery is open for children under 3 years and the room has a speaker for you to listen to the service and it is streamed to Fellowship Hall. Adults are welcome to accompany the children, help them get settled and stay or return to worship. All will return for Communion.

In our hair and skin and eyes, big and little, every size,
God has made us all a rainbow dancing 'round.

Sharing Our Prayers with God and Each Other

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever, amen.

Celebrating Our Giving to God at First Church

We respond to gifts of divine abundance and the opportunity to participate in a vibrant and vital ministry at First Church by bringing our yearly pledge cards [or your already gave card] AND our weekly gifts forward and placing both on the altar. This symbolizes not only our gratitude to God, but our dedication to Christ's Church here in Essex Junction.

Go now in faith, steadfast, strong and true.

Go now in love, and show you believe.
Reach out to others so all the world can see.
God will be there, holding you in love.
Go now in peace, in faith and in love.

FCCEJ Confirmation Class

Thursdays @ 7:30-9pm

Marvin Lounge

Confirmation is an intentional time in a person's life, usually a young person, to learn more about Christianity, the Bible, faith, etc. During this time, they start to intentionally form what they believe and how they want to engage society. The confirmands attend other faith tradition's worship services, participate in community service projects, and participate in some capacity at church whether if it's through helping with faith formation, reading in worship, etc. It ends with vocation Sunday when confirmands who want to join the church publicly do so. Anyone in 8th grade or above is welcome to join the Confirmation class. It is a one-year program. Confirmation class will take place most Thursdays, 7:30-9pm, between now and May 31st on Confirmation Sunday.

EVENTS@FIRST: TODAY

Stewardship Celebration Sunday

One of the blessings of being a congregational church is that no one tells us what to do or believe. No bishop passes down orders or demands that we hire a particular minister. We determine what our church, minister and faith will look like. We are in charge of the faith, the building and the finances. We celebrate this self-determination in a financial sense on our Stewardship Celebration Sunday at both services. In the service everyone is asked to come forward and place your pledge or pledge acknowledgement card in the offering plate signifying your full participation at the First Congregational Church of Essex Junction. Some people even dance on their way up since belonging is a joyful experience!

Hannaford Cards

Sunday, October 20th

Reload your Hannaford Cards (up to $500!) OR purchase new ones in $25, $50, $100, and $200 increments.

Saturday, November 16th @ 9:30am

All women of the church are invited to be a part of this vibrant group. Our programs will address personal growth, community outreach and having fun. Please consider joining us for conversation and goodies. (Bring your ideas for a possible name change.) Fellowship, Coffee & Conversation (we'll provide light food).

The next book group will meet on . in the Marvin Lounge. We will be reading a novel by Sinclair Lewis. It Can't Happen Here was written in 1935 while Lewis was in Vermont for the summer. It is a tale about the fragility of democracy and a look at how facism could take hold in America when it was largely oblivious to Hitler's aggression in Europe. The novel is about the rise of a president who becomes a dictator to save the nation from welfare cheats, crime and a liberal press. In 1935 when it was written, it was called "a message to thinking Americans". It is a novel that remains as fresh and contemporary as today's news.

Essex Eats Out

Friday, November 1st @ 5:30-6:30pm

A free, community-wide dinner open to all (with a special invitation to the needy & lonely) every Friday night throughout the Essex area. FCCEJ hosts Essex Eats Out on the 1st Friday of each month. Donations (to help subsidize the cost of these meals) are solicited but not required.

Reformation / Bible Sunday

October 27th, 2019

Reformation Sunday remembers and celebrates our roots in the Protestant Reformation and its emphasis on allowing the word of God found in the scriptures to be front and center in our faith. Bibles were translated into native tongues and for the first time in the history of the church, every day people could read and try to understand the message that Jesus was bringing to the world. We celebrate that tradition by giving bibles out to our 3rd graders during each worship service. If you are older than 3rd grade and have not received your bible, tell Rev. Mark or rev Josh or Laurie and we will make sure you get one that day.

Capital Campaign Update

By Kaki McGeary

Thank you to the volunteers who spent a few hours last Saturday working on the gardens around our NEW sign out front! Cathy Shearer, Carl Wermer, Kevin & Sena Meilleur, Lester & Muriel Nutting, Francis Gravel & Gary Hartmann, Josh Simon & Kaki McGeary.

We are awaiting final approval of a federal grant that will pay for the new exterior light fixtures. We need to wait until we have a grant contract in place before we can use those funds, so this has delayed installation of the new lighting. We anticipate that the lights will be installed some time in November. We are aware that this causes some inconvenience, but the delay will save us about $10,000 if we can use federal grant funds for that work instead of paying for it with Campaign funds.

Work on the historic windows continues. The new custom storm windows look beautiful (and they work!) and we are eagerly awaiting the re-installation of the refurbished windows and shutters some time this month. We have also had a crew of volunteer painters working throughout the church to give things a face lift... perhaps you have noticed the fresh coat of paint in the foyer outside Fellowship Hall and in the hallway upstairs outside the elevator. Thank you John and Donna Burnett, Laurie Chipman, Mark Mendes, Carolyn Rushford and Kaki McGeary for working on this. And thank you to Cathy Shearer for painting in the Sawyer House. I hope we haven't forgotten someone!!

We now turn our attention to planning the Sanctuary plaster repair/painting, the Marvin Lounge and the Kitchen.

...Stay tuned for more details!

Special Note: For your convenience, charts containing completion date projections for the Capital Campaign's various projects are posted on bulletin boards throughout the church.

Ask Boldly; Live Justly

Luke 18:1-8
Children's Sabbath
Laity Sunday

*The work of justice is knocking on doors.
The work of justice is calling on the phone.
The work of justice is getting educated about the issues.
The work of justice is marching in the streets.
The work of justice is writing letters to those in power.
The work of justice is prayers of persistence.
The work of justice is showing up again and again and again.*

The work of justice is not easy, and those who work persistently for justice can suffer from burn-out. Burn-out is the emotional, mental, spiritual and physical exhaustion caused by prolonged stress. We don't know what kept the widow in today's story from burn-out. We don't know why she was able to persist in boldly going to the unjust judge when so many others would have given up.

Like many others, she might have asked in despair, what is the right number of phone calls, of letters written, of steps marched? Those who do the work of justice never know what the tipping point might be. It could be today's visit, it could be tomorrow's phone call, it could be next week's letter that move the needle. But unlike those who experience burn-out, the widow approached each encounter as if this was the one that would have the hoped-for effect. She was energized rather than discouraged by the knowledge that each encounter could be the last one, or just the next one.

At the same time, the widow balanced her sense of purpose with a realistic understanding of the scope of her influence and ability. She did not try to talk the unjust judge into fixing every corrupt act against every person. Instead she worked doggedly for the one cause she was most passionate about.

We don't learn much about the widow except that she was persistent, but her continued work indicates that perhaps she employed some other tools to avoid burn-out as well. When the list of work to be done gets long and daunting, try taking a look at this list as well. It may seem counter-intuitive to do more, but attending to these may actually make the work of justice more sustainable into the future.

*The work of justice is gathering community.
The work of justice is taking time to be creative.
The work of justice is experiencing intentional sabbath.
The work of justice is letting go of perfectionism.
The work of justice is feeling optimism balanced with realism.
The work of justice is focusing on the task at hand.
The work of justice is seeing the long view.
The work of justice is praying with gratitude.*
