

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH of Essex Junction

Love. Serve. Grow.

A Welcoming Community, Accepting and Serving All in the Spirit of Christ

The First Congregational Church of Essex Junction, United Church of Christ, is an Open and Affirming congregation, embracing diversity and affirming the dignity and worth of every person, because we are all created by a loving God. We seek to live Christ's call for compassion, justice, healing and wholeness in life. Therefore, we welcome into our community persons of every race, gender, age, sexual orientation, faith background, nationality, ethnicity, marital status, mental and physical ability, economic and social position, gender identity and expression, level of education and family structure. We invite all to share in the life, leadership, ordained ministry, lay ministry, worship, sacraments, responsibilities, fellowship, blessings, and joys of our congregation as we seek to grow together in faith and love.

Call to Worship Deacon Rusty Sargent

Leader: : Jesus invited the children to come and hear his words and accept his care: Come, be God's child if only for this hour.

People: We come to learn.

Leader: Come, those of you who grieve over loved ones who have died, and Jesus will offer you hope.

People: We come to lovingly cry and hope.

Leader: Come, those of you who are excluded, for God will welcome you to the table.

People: We come to belong.

Leader: Come, those of you burdened with too much, and God will offer you a way to refresh your spirit.

People: We come to give.

Leader: Come and let us worship the Living God.

I was there to hear your borning cry,
 I'll be there when you are old.
 I rejoiced the day you were baptized,
 to see your life unfold.
 I was there when you were but a child,
 with a faith to suit you well;
 I'll be there in case you wander off
 and find where demons dwell.
 When you found the wonder of the Word,
 I was there to cheer you on;
 You were raised to praise the living God,
 to whom you now belong.
 Should you find someone to share your time
 and you join your hearts as one,
 I'll be there to make your verses rhyme
 from dusk till rising sun.
 In the middle ages of your life,
 not too old, no longer young,
 I'll be there to guide you through the night,
 complete what I've begun.
 When the evening gently closes in
 and you shut your weary eyes,
 I'll be there as I have always been
 with just one more surprise.
 I was there to hear your borning cry,
 I'll be there when you are old.
 I rejoiced the day you were baptized,
 to see your life unfold.

Prayer of Invocation & Unison Lord's Prayer Deacon Rusty Sargent Loving God, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And do not let us fall into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever, amen.

Scripture Reading

Hebrews 11:23-12:2

By faith Moses was hidden by his parents for three months after his birth, because they saw that the child was beautiful; and they were not afraid of the king's edict. By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called a son of Pharaoh's daughter, choosing rather to share ill-treatment with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. He considered abuse suffered for the Christ to be greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking ahead to the reward. By faith he left Egypt, unafraid of the king's anger; for he persevered as though he saw him who is invisible. By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch the firstborn of Israel.

By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as if it were dry land, but when the Egyptians attempted to do so they were drowned. By faith the walls of Jericho fell after they had been encircled for seven days. By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had received the spies in peace.

And what more should I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets— who through faith conquered kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions, quenched raging fire, escaped the edge of the sword, won strength out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight. Women received their dead by resurrection. Others were tortured, refusing to accept release, in order to obtain a better resurrection. Others suffered mocking and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment. They were stoned to death, they were sawn in two, they were killed by the sword; they went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, persecuted, tormented— of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, and in caves and holes in the ground.

Yet all these, though they were commended for their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had provided something better so that they would not, without us, be made perfect.

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God.

A Litany for Our Saints..... Deacon Rusty Sargent

Leader: : Today we come to recognize the power of God. We believe that God nurtures our lives and walks with us as we journey back to the divine.

People: Jesus embodies these truths and invites us into the eternal realm of God where peace, forgiveness and love reign.

Leader: We remember our saints that have recently joined their Maker. We proclaim their names knowing that they live on in the very presence of our God. We remember

Irving Bartlett, Elizabeth Cilley, Emily Ehler, Stanley Hathaway, Stephen Hayes, Phyllis Hogel, Marilyn Hyde, George Jackson, Dorothy Knox, Carlene Lawrence, Siobhan Mayer, Karl Moody, John Poratti, Beth Terry

We also remember others who have gone before.....

Everyone is welcome to come forward and light a candle for a loved one who has died, offering their name to the congregation and if so desired, share briefly who the person was and their significance in your life.

People: We miss our saints and await the day when we will be re-united with them by the power of God. May their memories bring comfort, peace, and love to our lives today. Amen and Alleluia.

Sharing the Bread and the Cup

Today, we will partake of communion by passing the bread and cup out to each person: the elements will be wrapped in plastic wrap with a small cup of juice. Each pew will get a plate to unwrap and share. Please wait for the minister to direct you to dip your pieces of bread into the cup and partake.

Special note: In order to welcome as many people as possible to Christ's table, all bread is gluten free and the juice is non-alcoholic grape juice.

Absolutely everyone is welcome at Christ's table.

Celebrating Our Giving to God at First Church

Thank you to those at home who are joining us and financially supporting our ministry.

Thank you to folks in the sanctuary who are present and offering their gifts in the basket provided on the way out.

Thank you to everyone who has sent in their pledge card for 2022 and for everyone planning to send it in shortly.

For all the saints who from their labors rest,
Who thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
Thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

O may thy soldiers, faithful, true and bold,
Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
And win with them the victor's crown of gold.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all the one in thee, for all are thine.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Amen.

Go Now In Peace

Go now in peace. Never be afraid.
God will go with you each hour of every day.
Go now in faith, steadfast, strong and true.
Know God will guide you in all you do.
Go now in love, and show you believe.
Reach out to others so all the world can see.
God will be there, holding you in love.
God now in peace, in faith and in love.
