African American Spiritual

Call to Worship .....Deacon Alison Wermer

Leader: In Israel's darkest hour when they were deported and forced to make a foreign nation their home, they held onto the belief that light would come.

People: The Persians defeating the Babylonians and allowed the Israelites to return home to rebuild their homes, plant their crops and celebrate life once again. Light came back into their lives.

Leader: Christmas teaches us that though life can be full of shadows, demons and forces of evil, light comes to enlighten, lift the burden and invite us back into the warmth of love. Both the God of the Old Testament AND the God of the New Testament teach us this truth. Come, let us worship THAT God.

Prayer of Invocation & Unison Lord's Prayer ..... Deacon Alison Wermer

Loving God, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And do not let us fall into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever, amen.

Scripture Reading

Old Testament Prophetic

Jeremiah 31:7-14

For thus says the Lord:

Sing aloud with gladness for Jacob,
and raise shouts for the chief of the nations;
proclaim, give praise, and say,

‘Save, O Lord, your people, the remnant of Israel.’

See, I am going to bring them from the land of the north,
and gather them from the farthest parts of the earth,
among them the blind and the lame,
those with child and those in labour, together;
a great company, they shall return here.

With weeping they shall come,
and with consolations I will lead them back,
I will let them walk by brooks of water,
in a straight path in which they shall not stumble;

for I have become a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.

Hear the word of the Lord, O nations, and declare it in the coastlands far away; say,
‘He who scattered Israel will gather him, and will keep him as a shepherd a flock.’

For the Lord has ransomed Jacob, and has redeemed him from hands too strong for him.

They shall come and sing aloud on the height of Zion, and they shall be radiant over the goodness of the Lord,
over the grain, the wine, and the oil,
and over the young of the flock and the herd;

their life shall become like a watered garden, and they shall never languish again.

Then shall the young women rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old shall be merry.

I will turn their mourning into joy,

I will comfort them, and give them gladness for sorrow.

I will give the priests their fill of fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my bounty, says the Lord.

Children's Message..... Rev. Mark Mendes

Angels, from the realms of glory, wing your flight o'er all the earth;
 As you sang creation's story, now proclaim Messiah's birth:
 Come and worship, come and worship, worship Christ, give thanks and sing.

Shepherds, in the fields abiding, watching o'er your flocks by night,
 God with us is now residing, yonder shines the infant light:
 Come and worship, come and worship, worship Christ, give thanks and sing.

Sages, leave your contemplations, brighter visions beam afar;
 Seek the great Desire of Nations, guided by Christ's natal star:
 Come and worship, come and worship, worship Christ, give thanks and sing.

Saints, before the altar bending, watching long in hope and fear, Suddenly, your prayers attending, Christ beside you shall appear.
 Come and worship, come and worship, worship Christ, give thanks and sing.

Pastoral Prayer ..... Rev. Josh Simon

A Time of Silence for Personal Prayer
 Sharing Our Prayers with God and Each Other Musical Prayer Response                      Like a Child

Scripture Reading                                      New Testament Gospel                                      John 1:1-18

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world.

He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God.

And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth. (John testified to him and cried out, 'This was he of whom I said, "He who comes after me ranks ahead of me because he was before me."')

From his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. The law indeed was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God. It is God the only Son, who is close to the Father's heart, who has made him known.

Sharing the Bread and the Cup

Today, we will partake of communion by passing the bread and cup out to each person: the elements will be wrapped in plastic wrap with a small cup of juice. Each pew will get a plate to unwrap and share. Please wait for the minister to direct you to dip your pieces of bread into the cup and partake.

Special note: In order to welcome as many people as possible to Christ's table, all bread is gluten free and the juice is non-alcoholic grape juice.

Absolutely everyone is welcome at Christ's table.

Celebrating Our Giving to God at First Church
