Call to Worship & Lighting the Third Lenten Candle: Entering the Temple

Each week we will have a call to worship that also includes lighting a Lenten candle, just like during advent. We will ask people in the congregation beforehand to participate in doing the reading and lighting the candle.

Reader 1: On this Journey through Lent we are called to look into the mystery of God found right under the surface of daily life.

(Light the Journey and Discipleship candles)

Reader 2: In all four gospels, Jesus enters the temple and challenges their practices and theological assumptions. He turns over tables, drives out the money changers and rails against the hypocrisy of the religious leaders.

Congregation: Jesus challenges those of us in church to be ever vigilant when it comes to making human traditions into God's Law. God's way is always bigger than ours and so we must remain humble.

Reader 3: Then as now, followers find this disturbing and would rather have an easier faith. Peter rebuked Jesus, we create easier religious constructs to follow which diminish the power of Christ's message and call.

Reader 4: Jesus, give us the strength and courage to answer God's call to love our neighbor, ourselves, and our enemies. Lead us into more meaningful lives.

Deacon's Prayer of Invocation & Unison Lord's Prayer

Loving God, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And do not let us fall into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever, amen.

Children's Message..... Rev. Mark Mendes

A Time of Silence for Personal Prayer

Sharing Our Prayers with God and Each Other

Lighting a Candle for Someone in Need of Prayer

Anytime before, during, or after the worship service, everyone is free to come light a candle for someone in need of prayer. You might come up during a hymn or during the silence in the pastoral prayer or even as you first arrive at church.

Musical Prayer Response Lord, I Need You

Matt Maher

Lord, I need You, oh, I need You.

Every hour I need You.

My one defense, my righteousness,

oh God, how I need You.

You're my one defense, my righteousness,

oh God, how I need You.

Repent or Perish

At that very time there were some present who told him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. He asked them, 'Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were worse sinners than all other Galileans? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as they did. Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam fell on them—do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others living in Jerusalem? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did.'

The Parable of the Barren Fig Tree

Then he told this parable: 'A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and found none. So he said to the gardener, "See here! For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and still I find none. Cut it down! Why should it be wasting the soil?" He replied, "Sir, let it alone for one more year, until I dig round it and put manure on it. If it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down."'

Jesus Heals a Crippled Woman

Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, 'Woman, you are set free from your ailment.' When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, 'There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day.' But the Lord answered him and said, 'You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?' When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

A Time of Confession

It is an ancient ritual of the church to confess our shortcomings before God. Today we lean into that tradition by offering time to first write [earlier during the service perhaps] and then bring up your confession written on the provided paper and place it in one of the large bowls of water. The specially made paper with your confession written on it will then dissolve as it floats deeper into the water, symbolizing that God forgives and no longer remembers your failings and or shortcomings of behavior. As your paper dissolves, let the weight of your sin lighten as you claim the freedom of being. Once everyone is seated we will complete the rite of confession by saying the following.....

Leader: Jesus proclaimed a message of forgiveness and love. In the name of our Lord, I proclaim to you that your sins are forgiven.

People: Loving God, thank you for welcoming me home with a ring, robe and embrace. May your undeserved forgiveness give me the freedom to be a better person. I accept your grace and pledge to be more loving. Alleluia and amen.

Closing Hymn

There Is a Balm in Gilead

553

There is a balm in Gilead, to make the wounded whole,
There is a balm in Gilead to heal the sin sick soul.

Sometimes I feel discouraged and think my work's in vain,
But then the Holy Spirit revives my soul again.

There is a balm in Gilead, to make the wounded whole,
There is a balm in Gilead to heal the sin sick soul.

Don't ever feel discouraged, for Jesus is your friend,
Who if you ask for knowledge will never fail to lend.

There is a balm in Gilead, to make the wounded whole,
There is a balm in Gilead to heal the sin sick soul.

If you cannot preach like Peter, if you cannot pray like Paul,
You can tell the love of Jesus who died to save us all.

There is a balm in Gilead, to make the wounded whole,
There is a balm in Gilead to heal the sin sick soul.

Let me walk with my fellow in perfect harmony.

Let peace begin with me.
Let this be the moment now.

With ev'ry breath I take,
let this be my solemn vow;

To take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally!
