Call to Worship & Lighting the Fifth Lenten Candle: Tears

Each week we will have a call to worship that also includes lighting a Lenten candle, just like during advent. We will ask people in the congregation beforehand to participate in doing the reading and lighting the candle.

Reader: As our Lenten journey continues, we remember that God shows the divine presence in everyday life and to everyday people. The Messiah heals and shows us a way to find light in darkness.

(Light four candles)

Congregation: Today, we remember how Jesus loved his friends Lazarus, Mary and Martha. They supported, took care of, anointed and welcomed Jesus into their home for meals.

Reader: Lazarus died but Jesus raised his friend from the grave and told everyone about eternal life. When Lazarus died, Jesus cried gentle tears of love for his friend.

Congregation: God cries with us as we fail to see the beautiful gift of the divine in our midst, as we suffer with heartbreak and as we grieve for those we love.

Reader: Let us pray. Dear God, let Christ's tears wash the pain of life away and replace it with the warmth of tenderness. Amen.

(Light the Fifth Candle)

Deacon's Prayer of Invocation & Unison Lord's Prayer

Loving God, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And do not let us fall into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever, amen.

Children's Message..... Rev. Josh Simon

After 2nd service ~ PreK – 8th graders are invited to follow Laurie for faith formation time in our peer rooms with air purifiers running. High school youth are welcome to help. All our volunteers are vaccinated, and masks are optional. All will return to participate in Communion with their families.

Mary Anoints Jesus

Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, 'Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?' (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, 'Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me.'

The Plot to Kill Lazarus

When the great crowd of the Jews learned that he was there, they came not only because of Jesus but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. So the chief priests planned to put Lazarus to death as well, since it was on account of him that many of the Jews were deserting and were believing in Jesus.

A Time of Confession

It is an ancient ritual of the church to confess our shortcomings before God. Today we lean into that tradition by offering time to first write [earlier during the service perhaps] and then bring up your confession written on the provided paper and place it in one of the large bowls of water. The specially made paper with your confession written on it will then dissolve as it floats deeper into the water, symbolizing that God forgives and no longer remembers your failings and or shortcomings of behavior. As your paper dissolves, let the weight of your sin lighten as you claim the freedom of being. Once everyone is seated we will complete the rite of confession by saying the following.....

Leader: Jesus proclaimed a message of forgiveness and love. In the name of our Lord, I proclaim to you that your sins are forgiven.

People: Loving God, thank you for welcoming me home with a ring, robe and embrace. May your undeserved forgiveness give me the freedom to be a better person. I accept your grace and pledge to be more loving. Alleluia and amen.

The Sacrament of Holy Communion

Today, the Deacons will pass out plates of gluten free bread and juice to each pew. Please unwrap your plate and wait for the direction of the minister to receive your communion elements. When the minister directs, dip your bread into the cup and partake immediately.

People worshipping at home are encouraged to take their communion elements and partake at the same time as the congregation in the sanctuary. Together we are one body of Christ at First Church.

Special note: In order to welcome as many people as possible to Christ's table, all bread is gluten free and the juice is non-alcoholic grape juice.

Absolutely everyone is welcome at Christ's table.

Celebrating Our Giving to God at First Church

Our church has many vibrant ministries and a strong outreach into the community. Our work is changing lives and making our community a better place in which to live. Thanks to all who are offering your gifts to the church and partnering with us in our mission to follow Christ.

Go Now In Peace

Go now in peace. Never be afraid.
God will go with you each hour of every day.
Go now in faith, steadfast, strong and true.
Know God will guide you in all you do.
Go now in love, and show you believe.
Reach out to others so all the world can see.
God will be there, holding you in love.
Go now in peace, in faith and in love.
