Call to Worship & Lighting the Fifth Lenten Candle: Get Ready!

Reader: On this final Sunday of our Lenten journey, let us recall that God finds us where we live and offers us gifts beyond measure: faith, belonging, healing, and renewed life.

(Light five candles)

Congregation: As pilgrims journeyed to Jerusalem, the people in the streets proclaimed, "Hosanna, blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord," hoping that one fine day the Messiah would come.

Reader: This ritual of welcoming strangers year after year in the hopes that one of them would be the Messiah teaches us to always be ready to meet God.

Congregation: On mountain tops or in light, in vines and branches or flowing waters, in gates to your gardens or doorways: God through Jesus comes to us as we in turn journey toward our God.

Reader: Let us pray. Dear God, thank you for reaching out to us as we travel through this barren land. Help us to see you surrounding us each and every day.
Amen

(Light the sixth and last candle of Lent)

Deacon's Prayer of Invocation & Unison Lord's Prayer

Loving God, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And do not let us fall into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever, amen.

Musical Prayer Response Jesus, Name of All Names

Jesus Enters Jerusalem

After he had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, 'Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, "Why are you untying it?" just say this: "The Lord needs it."' So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, 'Why are you untying the colt?' They said, 'The Lord needs it.' Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it. As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, saying,

'Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!
Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!'

Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, 'Teacher, order your disciples to stop.' He answered, 'I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out.'

A Time of Confession

It is an ancient ritual of the church to confess our shortcomings before God. Today we lean into that tradition by offering time to first write [earlier during the service perhaps] and then bring up your confession written on the provided paper and place it in one of the large bowls of water. The specially made paper with your confession written on it will then dissolve as it floats deeper into the water, symbolizing that God forgives and no longer remembers your failings and or shortcomings of behavior. As your paper dissolves, let the weight of your sin lighten as you claim the freedom of being. Once everyone is seated we will complete the rite of confession by saying the following.....

Leader: Jesus proclaimed a message of forgiveness and love. In the name of our Lord, I proclaim to you that your sins are forgiven.

People: Loving God, thank you for welcoming me home with a ring, robe and embrace. May your undeserved forgiveness give me the freedom to be a better person. I accept your grace and pledge to be more loving. Alleluia and amen.

Celebrating Our Giving to God at First Church

Our church has many vibrant ministries and a strong outreach into the community. Our work is changing lives and making our community a better place in which to live. Thanks to all who are offering your gifts to the church and partnering with us in our mission to follow Christ.

Go Now In Peace

Go now in peace. Never be afraid.

God will go with you each hour of every day.

Go now in faith, steadfast, strong and true.

Know God will guide you in all you do.

Go now in love, and show you believe.

Reach out to others so all the world can see.

God will be there, holding you in love.

Go now in peace, in faith and in love.
