Call to WorshipDeacon Judy McCullen

Leader: God calls us to build kingdoms of love and justice in this world: places where people can live in peace and harmony. Communities where civility and respect rule the day.

People: The tower of Babel tells the story of humanity building a city where God’s way of equality and kindness is ignored and replaced with human corruption and power.

Leader: God wants society to be just. Jesus preached for the inclusion of all people in the kingdom. Our church community, both the people and the building, should reflect these divine demands.

People: Come, let us re-dedicate this building and our family of faith to the purposes of God and spreading Christ’s good news.

The Congregation Sings as the Children Come Forward

Jesus loves the little children, all God's children of the world.
Whether young or old or new,
Jesus loves us through and through,
Teaching us to love all creatures in the world.

The Congregation Sings as the Children Return to Their Families

God has made us all a rainbow.
Colors dancing ‘round and ‘round.
In our hair and skin and eyes,
big and little, every size,
God has made us all a rainbow dancing ‘round.

A Litany to Celebrate First Church's Accomplishments

Rev. Mendes: God calls us to build a kingdom filled with love where acts of compassion, kindness and forgiveness build a healthy community. Jesus invited us to live into this way of being. We call it the church.

President Shearer: At the First Congregational Church of Essex Junction, we come together to learn about Christ's kingdom of love. We worship and praise, we feed and clothe our neighbors, we serve on committees and as officers as we work with our staff to run the place, we sing and play in musical groups, we lift up our children and youth, and we reach out into the wider community to support goodness in all its forms.

Rev. Mendes: To accomplish this ministry we need a functional building in good shape and ours had some issues, embodying detractions from negligence, age, disrepair and obsolescence.

President Shearer: Then Church Council established the Our Home, Our Future and Our Time Capital Campaign to bring our facilities up to speed so that it nurtures instead of hinders our witness in the world.

Congregation: We looked at all the materials presented, we listened to our leaders and then we voted to move forward with the Our Home, Our Future, Our Time Capital Campaign.

Kaki McGeary: Dave Johnson and I became Co-Chairs of an august body of members who raised over $1,100,000 to accomplish projects the entire church voted in order to make our building an able assistant to our ministry.

Dave Johnson: Kaki McGeary and I, plus the entire Capital Campaign Committee, worked with the Trustees to oversee the congregation's project list and ensure that they were accomplished to our specifications and liking.

Capital Campaign Committee: We participated in the feasibility study, we worked with the congregation to develop the project list, we worked with contractors and businesses, we pledged our gifts early, and we made decisions to ensure the success of the campaign.

Pledgers: After the presentations, we gave our funds to the campaign. When the elevator needed work, some of us pledged for an extra year. We gave freely so that Christ's work in this sacred building might continue.

Everyone: We are thrilled to have been a part of this successful project. We celebrate our refurbished building and its use in Christ's work. We lift up the faith it took to step into such an endeavor. Thank you, God, for offering us the opportunity for a brighter future.

President Catherine Shearer: We should all be proud of what we have accomplished here. Come, let us thank the key leaders who contributed so much of their time and energy to guarantee its success.

Sharing Our Prayers with God and Each Other

Loving God, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And do not let us fall into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever, amen.

Go Now In Peace

Go now in peace. Never be afraid.
God will go with you each hour of every day.
Go now in faith, steadfast, strong and true.
Know God will guide you in all you do.
Go now in love, and show you believe.
Reach out to others so all the world can see.
God will be there, watching from above.
God now in peace, in faith and in love
